Cincinnati, OH 45232

Location & Date

Saturday, April 27, 2024

- Arbor Fair Displays may be set up on Friday or Saturday and should remain open throughout the competition.

What is Arbor Fair?

Arbor Fair is free to the public and consists of tables and tents set up near the competition area. In addition to displays highlighting environmental issues and promoting proper tree care, industry suppliers may have equipment and offer demonstrations.

Who Can Participate?

- Tree Care Companies
- Non-Profit Organizations
- Nature Centers
- Corporate/Sales/Industry
- Artisans
- Child-Centered Activities

Benefits for Participants

- Exposure to area residents and industry professionals
- Listing in all media marketing materials: print, web, email, etc.

Arbor Fair Space Includes

- Approximately 10' x 10' area
- Lunch for 2 representatives
- Listing on the event website and in Chapter communications

Exhibitors must bring their desired display equipment such as a tent, tables, chairs, signage, etc. Tents must be secured with weights, not stakes. Please note that overnight security is not provided for displays set up on Friday.

Arbor Fair Cost

- Tree Care Companies & Suppliers – $100.00
- Non-Profit Organizations – No Charge

Why Sponsor?

The Ohio Tree Climbing Championship provides an opportunity for stakeholders in the industry to help bring awareness to the public about the value of trees, the profession, and career opportunities in arboriculture and highlights your company's commitment and support of professional tree workers across the state. Sponsorship provides your organization with brand recognition at all event areas, including Aerial Rescue, Ascent, Belayed Speed Climb Throw Line, Work Climb, Masters' Challenge, and NEW this year, you will have recognition at the Recreational Climb and a new Student Competition. Sponsors receive:

- Exposure before, during, and after the event.
- The opportunity to support climbing professionals from around the state.

Benefits of Sponsorship

- Includes Arbor Fair space.
- Company logo on Volunteer and Climber shirts (*if commitment and payment received before March 20).
- Recognition in Chapter newsletter, emails, and website.
- Event signage
- Exposure to area residents
